ALL FOR THE NIGGER.

We are taxed on our clothing, our meat and our bread,
On our carpets and dishes, our tables and bed,
On our tea and our coffee, our fuel and lights,
And we're taxed so severely we can't sleep o'nights.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, great God can it be,
The home of the brave, and the land of the free.

We are stamped on our mortgages, checks, notes and bills,
On our deeds, on our contracts, and on our last wills;
And the star-spangled banner in mourning doth wave,
O'er the wealth of the nation turned into the grave.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, &c.

We are taxed on our offices, our stores and our shops,
On our stoves, on our dishes, our brooms and our mops,
On our horses and cattle, and if we should die,
We are taxed on the coffins in which we must lie.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, &c.

We are taxed on all goods by kind providence given,
We are taxed for the Bible that points us to heaven,
And when we ascend to the heavenly goal,
They would, if they could, stick a stamp on our soul.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, &c.

But this is not all, not the money alone,
Does the Rail Splitter claim for to build up his throne,
If you have'n three hundred your body must tell,
And if killed in one month it's all very well.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, &c.

Now, boys, will you tell me just what it has cost,
To elect old Abe Lincoln and all his black host?
Just five hundred thousand of our country's best blood
Have been slain, and their bodies lie under the sod.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, &c.

And then there's TWO THOUSAND MILLIONS and more,
Has been stolen and spent in this unholy war,
And poor men that worked for ten years that are past,
And have saved up three hundred, 'tis stolen at last.
Chorus—And it's all for the nigger, &c.

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.

The Suppression of the New York World and Journal of Commerce—The Editor of the World to the President of the United States.

To His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States:

Sir: "That the King can do no wrong" is the theory of a monarchy. It is the theory of a constitutional republic that its Chief Magistrate may do wrong. In the former the ministry is responsible for the King's acts. In the latter the President is responsible for the acts of his ministers. Our Constitution admits that the President may err in providing for a judgment upon his doings by the people, in regular elections. In providing for his impeachment, it admits that he may be guilty of crimes.

In a government of laws, and not of men, the most obscure citizen may without indecorum address himself to the Chief Magistrate, when to the Constitution whence you derive your temporary power and he the guaranty of his perpetual rights, he has constantly paid his unquestioning loyalty, and when to the laws, which your duty is to care for a faithful execution of, he has rendered entire obedience.

If the matter of his address be that in his person, property and rights, the Constitution has been disregarded and the laws disobeyed if its appeal to the principles of justice be no more earnest than the solicitude of its regard for truth, and if the manner of his address be no less temperate than firm, he does not need courtly phrases to propitiate an attentive hearing from a magistrate who loves his country, her institutions, and her laws.

In the World of last Wednesday morning was published a proclamation, purporting to be signed by your Excellency and countersigned by the Secretary of State, appointing a day of fasting and prayer, and calling into military service by volunteering and draft four hundred thousand citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five. That proclamation was a forgery, written by a person who, ever since your departure from Springfield for Washington in 1861, has enjoyed private as well as public opportunities for learning to counterfeit the peculiarities of your speech and style, and whose service for years as a city editor of the New York Times and upon the New York Tribune acquainted him with the entire newspaper machinery of the city, and enabled him to insert his clever forgery into the regular channels by which we receive news, at a time when competent inspection of its genuineness was impossible, and suspicion of its authenticity was improbable. The manifold paper resembling in all respects that upon which we nightly receive our agents' news, and from the Government itself orders, announcements and proclamations, was left with a night clerk about 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning, after the departure of every responsible editor, and was at once passed into the hands of the printers, put in type and published.—No newspaper in the country but would have been deceived as we were!

Our misfortune was complete. At an early hour, however, before the business of the city had fairly begun, it was discovered that we had been imposed upon, and were being made to appear the instruments of a deception of the public. There was no delay in vindicating our character. Our whole machinery for spreading news was set in motion instantly to announce that we had been deceived by a forgery—that your Excellency had issued no proclamation. The sale of papers over our counters was stopped. Our bundles to the Scotia bound for Europe that day were stopped. The owners and pursers files were stopped. News room bundles and files were stopped, and the agent of the line was informed that the proclamation was a forgery. Our printers and pressmen were brought from their homes and beds to put in type the story of our misfortune. Our bulletin boards were placarded with the offer of a reward for the discovery of the forger; and to the agent of the Associated Press I sent a telegram reciting all the facts, for him to transmit at once to nearly every daily paper in the North from Maine to California. Thus before the Scotia sailed, before your Secretary of State had officially branded the forgery, the wings which we had given to Truth had enabled her to outstrip every where the Falsehood we had unwittingly set on foot, and in many places the Truth arrived before the forger had come to tell his tale.

For any injury done to ourselves, to the Government, or to the public, this publicity was ample antidote. It indeed made injury impossible.

But the insult to your excellency was the greater in proportion to the eminence of your station. Early in the afternoon of Wednesday, therefore I went with Mr. Wm. C. Prime, the chief editor of the Journal of Commerce, which had been deceived precisely as we were, to the headquarters of the Department of the East, and we laid before the commanding General every clue in our possession which could lead to the discovery of the guilty persons. All the facts above recited were telegraphed at once to you through the Secretary of War by General Dix. I assert, moreover, that I have never known a mind so prejudiced in which acquaintance with these facts would not enforce the conviction of our utter blamelessness.

Here was the absence of an intent to do wrong; here was an antidote for an injury unwittingly assisted, more complete and effectual than the injury itself; here was alacrity in search of the wrong doer, and assistance rendered to your subordinate to discover the author of the insult done to you.

With these facts set fully before you by the General commanding this department, you reiterated an order for my arrest and imprisonment in Fort Lafayette; for the seizure and occupation of the World office by a military guard, and the suppression of its publications. The Journal of Commerce, its editors and publishers, were included in the same order.

I believe, though I cannot state of my own knowledge, that to the commanding General's assertion of our entire blamelessness it was owing that the order for our arrest and incarceration was rescinded. But the order for the suppression of the World was not rescinded. Under your orders General Dix sent a strong military force to its publication office and editorial rooms, who ejected their occupants, and for two days and three nights held possession there injuring and abstracting some of their contents, and permitting no one to cross the threshold.

Not until Sunday morning did this occupation cease. Not until to-day has The World been free to speak. But to those who have ears to hear its absence has been more eloquent than its columns could ever be.

To characterize these proceedings as unprecedented, would be to forget the past history of your Administration; and to characterize them as shocking to every mind, would be to disregard that principle of human nature from which it arises that men submitting once and again to lawless encroachments of power, with every intermission, lose something of the old, free, keen sense of their true nature and real danger.

Charles I was doubtless advised to, and applauded for, the crimes by which he lost his crown and life. Nor can you do any such outrageous, oppressive, and unjust a thing that it will not be applauded by those whose prosperity and power you have created and may destroy. To characterize these proceedings as arbitrary, illegal, and unconstitutional, would seem, if such weighty words have not been emptied of all significance, to befit better an hour at which you have not arrived and a place where not public opinion but the authority of law speaks after impeachment, trial, conviction and judgment.

But, sir, the suppression of two daily journals in this metropolis—one the organ of its great commercial public, the other a recognized exponent of the Democratic principles which are shared by half, or nearly half, your fellow citizens—did shock the public mind, did amaze every honest and patriotic citizen, did fill with indignation and alarm every pure and loyal breast. There were no indignation meetings, there were no riots, there was no official protest. But do not imagine, sir, that the Governor of this State has forgotten to do his duty; do not imagine that the people of this city or State, or country have ceased to love their liberties, or do not know how to protect their rights. It would be fatal to a tyrant to commit that error here and now. A free people can at need devise means to teach their Chief Magistrate the same lesson.

To you, sir, who have by heart the Constitution which you swore to "preserve, protect, and defend," it may be an impertinence to cite those natural and chartered rights therein enumerated, among which are these: That the people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable seizures, and that no warrant even shall issue, except, upon probable cause, supported by oath, and particularly describing the place to be searched and persons or things to be seized; that no persons shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; yet these are the most priceless possessions of freemen, and these you took far away from me.

Even a captured and guilty criminal who knew that his crime would be proved, and that the law would assuredly visit upon him condign punishment, might with propriety plead these rights and demand of the Chief Magistrate to throw over him these shields. Assaulted by the bayonets of a military commander, he might protest and assert his inalienable right to the orderly processes, the proofs, and the punishment of the law. But has the Saxon tongue any terms left for him to use who, being the victim of crime, has been made also the victim of lawless power?

It is the theory of the law that after the commission of any crime, all proceedings taken before trial shall be merely preventative but the proceedings taken against the World were of the nature of a summary execution of judgment. Would trial by law have been denied, would the law itself have been set aside for the bayonet, would a process as summary as a drum-head court martial have been resorted to by you in a peaceful city, far from the boundaries of military occupation, had the presses which consistently applaud your course been, as we were, the victims of this forger? Had the Tribune and Times published the forgery (and the Tribune candidly admits that it might have published it and was prevented only by mere chance) would you, sir, have suppressed the Tribune and Times as you suppressed The World and Journal of Commerce? You know you would not: If not, why not?

Is there a different law for your opponents and for your supporters?

Can you, whose eyes discern equality under every complexion be blinded by the hue of partisanship?

The World had sustained the Government in its struggle to preserve our imperiled nationality. It had helped inspire the martial spirit of the people, and encourage them to the sacrifices they have so nobly made. It had advocated those measures of financial policy which could best preserve the tone and vigor of the Government in the contest. It had deserved well of the republic, and of those who love it.

But it also exposed and denounced the corruptions attendant upon your Administraion. It had opposed a delusive and enervating system of paper money. It had vindicated the fame of a patriot general, whom you had removed from command on the eve of victory. It had deprecated your re-election. Did you not find in these facts the provocations to your wrong and your persistence in wrong? Had you not made up your mind against us before the underling, your partisan, had concocted his plot? When you answer these interrogatories, I will produce the proof of threats made against us by those nearest you, and assuming to exert your prerogative, before this trick of forgery furnished you with the specious pretense of an accusation.

Can it be possible, sir, that for a moment you supposed that journals like ours could afford to be guilty of this forgery? Let the unanimous voice of your own press answer. Such a trick would hardly have succeeded in Sangamon county, Illinois. For a party which is about to go before the people, and ask them to commit to its hands the administration of affairs, which has been more generous and forbearing to your errors than you have been just to its guides, permit me to say that it was less possible to be true of any one of them than it was of any man high or low who suspected them.

And so the end has proved. The confessed and guilty forgers were your own zealous partisans. Joseph Howard, Jr., who has confessed his crime, was a Republican politician and Loyal Leaguer, of Brooklyn. Consider, sir, at whose feet he was taught his political education, and in whose cause he spent his political breath.—Mr. Howard has been from his very childhood an intimate friend of the Republican clergyman, Henry Ward Beecher, and a member of his church. He has listened year in and year out to the dropping of the Plymouth sanctuary.—The stump speeches which there follow prayer and precede the benediction he for years reported in the journal which is your devoted organ in this city. For years he was the city editor of that journal, the New York Times; for a long time he was the Washington correspondent of the chief Abolition newspaper of the country, the New York Tribune; he has been a frequent contributor to the columns of the Independent; he journeyed with you from Springfield to Washington; he represents himself a favored visitor at the White House since your residence there.

By a curious felicity the stylus with which his amanuensis copied on tissue paper the proclamation and signed your name was abstracted from the editorial rooms of the Tribune. The party principles upon which you were pledged to administer the Government have been the daily meat and drink of this forger. He has denounced as faithfully as you the party by whose defeat you rose to power. He has been the noisy champion of an exclusive loyalty; he has preached in club houses and at street corners those politics which stigmatise constitutional opposition to the Administration as disloyalty to the Government. The stock brokers who were his confederates will be found to be of the same kidney. They all advocated a paper money legal tender; they have all countenanced the paper inflation; they have all been heedless of the misery to poor men which such inflations breed; they have all rejoiced at the speculations thus fostered, and by speculation they had hoped to thrive.

For twenty-four hours something was pardoned to your presumed natural trepidation, since our blamelessness having been alleged to you by those here whom it was your duty to believe, it seemed only prudent to await your recovery.

For the next twenty-four hours, from moment to moment, it was expected that you would hasten to confess and repair your mistake. But the mistake thus prolonged grew to the proportions of a crime; and till the discovery of the forger stripped its mask off and disclosed its inspiring cause of the act, it grew monstrous hourly in men's eyes.

We were patient that the immeasurable infamy of the act might swell to its full proportions and stand complete.

By the recall of your arbitrary order, you have not made reparation for the wrong you have done. The violation of the Constitution stands recorded, and unless adequately atoned becomes a fatal precedent. For the purpose of gratifying an ignoble partisan resentment you have struck down the rights of the press, you have violated personal liberty, subjected property to unjust seizure, ostentatiously placed force above law, setting a dangerous example to those who love force more than they respect law; and thus, by attempting to crush the organs of free discussion, have made free elections impossible, and broken down all the safeguards of representative government.

It is you that in this transaction stand accused before the people. It is you who are conspicuously guilty. It is upon you that history, when recording these events, will affix the crime of a disregard of your duty, oblivion of your oath, and a pitiable subserviency to party prejudice and personal ambition, when the country demanded in the presidential office elevated character, devotion to duty, and entire self-abnegation.

But you are not to be left to the judgment of history alone. Thank God, the Constitution is not yet wholly abrogated, the people are soon to pass upon your claims to re-election, and the right of impeachment yet remains to their representatives. The people and their representatives have the right to speak when the pen is struck from the hands of a freeman by the bayonet; when the Bastile once broken down on the other side of the Atlantic by the reverberation of our Revolution, is re-constructed here.

In stormy times like these, amid dangers with which an unsuppressed rebellion environs us, his would have been a rash hand which had hastily set in motion for another purpose than the suppression of rebellion, the machinery of justice; who had invoked against the disloyalty of rulers the retribution and redresses of the law. The danger of such a conflict of laws is so far passed, that even the President could not plead national safety as an excuse for refusing to do justice or submit to judgment.

Yet no citizen who regards his duties should ever hesitate at the last to oppose lawless deeds with legal remedies. The law may break down. It will then disclose to a watchful people the point of greatest danger. Courts may fail; judges may be intimidated by threats or bribed by the allurements of power, and those who have sworn to execute the laws may shrink from the fulfilment of their oaths. A craven Congress may sit silent and idly watch the perishing liberties of the people whom they represent, but this cannot deter him who, in defending his rights is determined to do his whole duty, and to who it is competent at last to commit the issue to that Power, omnipotent and inscrutable, who presides in events and sways the destinies of nations and the hearts of men.

MANTON MARBLE.

New York, May 23, 1864.

THE FUTILITY OF CONQUEST.

To illustrate the futility of mere force, in the conquest of a people, the Milwaukie News, in a recent issue pointed to the condition of the Mississippi Valley. Its array of facts is striking:

Two years ago we drove the rebels out of the entire country surrounding Paducah. That section is now all occupied by the rebel Gen. Forrest. Immediately after Gen. Grant advanced into West Tennessee, and during the summer of 1862, conquered the whole of that region; it is now almost entirely in rebel hands. The same summer desperate battles were fought at Corinth, Iuka and Hatchie, and in every struggle victory crowned our arms; but every one of these points is in undisputed possession of the enemy. In the fall of that year, Gen. Grant occupied La Grange, in Tennessee, Holly Springs and Oxford in Mississippi, and the crossings of Yockney River, some twelve miles south of Oxford while his cavalry were thrown forward nearly to Grenada; the whole of this territory is now abandoned. At the same time our forces held possession of all the country eastward of the line of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, which is also, of course, in undisputed possession of the enemy.

A year ago this winter and spring our army took possession of the country back of Lake Providence, also of nearly all the region between the Mississippi and Yazoo rivers, afterward occupied Jackson and Canton, Mississippi; in the summer we arranged for the permanent occupation of the territory east of Vicksburg and between the Big Black and Yazoo rivers; about the same time our troops were pushed westward from Vicksburg into Louisiana, routing the enemy from the entire vicinity, a distance of from seventy to one hundred miles. Every square foot of the territory is now surrendered. In short, from Cairo to New Orleans, in the Mississippi Valley proper, our flag does not float over a single inch of territory out of the range of gunboats on the river, and no loyal man is known to live in any portion of the territory mentioned as conquered but now surrendered.

No Union man, it adds, can ride five miles out of Memphis without being killed or captured, and the same is true of most stations on the Mississippi. That even as far up as Shawneetown, it says, one hundred and fifty shots were fired from the Kentucky shore into one of our steamers a few days ago.

We can add to the News summary the accounts from Red river, from which our army has just been driven, and the reports that the occupation of Texas is to be abandoned. So much for the West. How is it elsewhere?—Florida has returned to the possession of the rebels, as has the greater part of North Carolina. We have made no impression upon South Carolina; and the siege of Charleston is virtually abandoned, while that of Mobile has not been commenced. Mere force, directed at States and at populations, instead of being wielded at the Confederate armies, has been unavailing for good.

Military power must disperse the rebel armies in the field, but it cannot subjugate a people like those of the Southern States, or hold in subjection so vast and divided a territory.

ABOLITION HYPOCRISY.

The Republicans tried to expel Mr. Long from the House for saying that he preferred the ackowledgment of the independence of the South to the extermination of the people. This was his whole offence. Yet in the debate upon this proposition, an Abolition member, Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, said:

"I would rather say a thousand times, let the Country be divided—the South go their way all slave, and the North all free—rather than to see the country once more under Democratic misrule."

This is patriotism, but Mr. Long's remark was treason, according to Abolition logic! The shameful hypocrisy and partisan motive of this whole movement, are well illustrated by this.

But another little fact is equally significant in this direction. The whole Republican force in the House united in declaring Mr. Long's speech to be treasonable and well designed to afford aid and comfort to the enemy. Yet the leading men among them subscribed for thousands of copies of this "treasonable speech," for circulation among their constituents! If it was treason to utter the speech, was it not equally treason to circulate it? Yet this was done by the very men who spoke loudest and were most active in support of the movement to expel Mr. Long!

Dialogue between Ancient Paul and Modern Abolitionists.

P—Let as many servants as are under the yoke, count their masters worthy of all honor.

A—Horrid! Let them do no such thing but break up the relation at once.

P—And they that have believing masters —

A—Hush! No slaveholder can be a Christian.

P—Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters.

A—Don't you do it.

P—I sent back a bond servant who had escaped from Philemon, and told Philemon that he would be more profitable, to him now than ever.

A—You did a wicked thing. Had you been as good as our Abe, you would have proclaimed all slaves free, and ordered all the military and naval force of the country to back up the slaves in escaping to freedom, even if they had to cut their master's throats to do it.

P—From such as you I withdraw myself.

A—Good riddance.

A Rampant Triumvirate.

The leading abolition journals of the State, are wonderfully exorcised concerning an editorial which appeared in our paper of May 20, on the subject of the Federal losses in the present campaign against Richmond. The Pittsburg Gazette, the Harrisburg Telegraph and the Franklin Repository, yelp in chorus at the statement of truth made in that article. Their editors feel most keenly their disgrace in being unmasked at their game of practising upon the credulity of the people. It was their darling, cherished purpose to deceive the public as to the management and progress of the war, and they fondly hoped that their oracular outgivings in regard to all matters connected with the army, would be gulped down by every body, without even an effort in the deglutition. But our article exposed their trick and hence the piteous ululations of the sneaking pack, the "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart" of Pennsylvania Abolition journalism. We can afford, however, to let them bark and snarl, for we need only to refer the public to the telegrams published in the columns of these very papers for verification of the statements made in our article. In fact, we never gave any opinion in regard to the losses of Grant and Butler's armies, but in the paragraph which these papers copy from our article, we expressly stated that the number at which we placed the killed, wounded and missing, was estimated "according to telegraphic reports." Therefore, if we have erred, they have misled us by publishing false despatches. Hence, they must prove that the telegrams given to the public in their own columns, were untrue, before they can justly assail us for making the statements of which they complain. But they know that they are doing wrong, nay, that they are guilty of a monstrous crime, in trying to hide from the people the real extent of the carnage, horror and misery attendant upon the recent battles. Their object is to keep the blood of the North at fever heat, so that they may still further deplete the veins and pockets of that tortured embodiment of the Government. Sangrado-like, they act upon the theory that the whole secret of medical science, consists in depletion, and, hence, when any thing is made public which seems to militate against their system of phlebotomy, (and, per consequence, against the indefinite continuance of the fees which they make by their use of the Government lancet), they yell and howl with very fear lest they be detected in their schemes of wickedness and infamy. They know, too, that they utter a deliberate and malicious falsehood, when they say that we are engaged "in bolstering up the cause of murderous traitors." The Hessian hireling who is the nominal editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph, is forced to endorse our course in the Legislature and confesses that as a member of that body, we were decided and outspoken in our devotion to the Union. The valiant editor of the Repository, who ran away at the first sound of the rebel bugles in the suburbs of Chambersburg, speaks of "professions of fidelity" to our country on our lips. This noble pair of brothers know and feel and believe that we love our country, but they hope to parry the force of the blow which articles like that at which they are offended, level at the continuance of their corrupt and bloody dynasty. As for the Pittsburg Gazette, its editor did not even possess the fairness to copy our article as we printed it, but made us say that "Gen. Grant is still able to act on the repulsive," instead of "the offensive," as we had it. A forgery so mean could only have been perpetrated by an editor who swore that he would not support Governor Curtin, yet did all in his power to re-elect him. But let the Harrisburg postmaster howl; let the hero of "Rutherford's Lane" repeat his cuckoo note of "traitor! traitor!" let the Pittsburg Gazette misquote and misrepresent; they cannot deter us from telling the truth about abolitionism and all its crimes, even though they be committed in the sacred name of the Union and by the authority of an administration which assumes to be the Government.

The Cleveland Nomination.

The "wing" of the "Republican" party which held its national convention at Cleveland, on the 31st ult., have put their nominees in the field in the person of GEN. JOHN C. FREMONT, for President and that of GEN. JOHN COCHRANE, for Vice President. The convention was largely attended, about 350 delegates and a very large crowd of spectators being present. Fremont and Cochrane have accepted the nominations, and the former, in his letter of acceptance, announces that he has resigned his commission in the army and that if Lincoln is renominated by the "shoddy wing" of the party, he must be defeated at all hazards. Their platform is, of course, thoroughly anti-slavery and in favor of the prosecution of the war. We will publish an account of the proceedings of the convention in our next.

GRADUATED.—Our young friends, Jas. Martin, Adam Koontz, Philip Shoemaker, James Shoemaker, and Wm. S. Cessna, all of this county, recently graduated at Duff's Commercial College, Pittsburg. They are all worthy young men and we commend them to the confidence of men of business.

TELEGRAPH LINE TO THE SPRINGS.—The Inland Telegraph Company are building a branch of their line to the Springs. The construction is going on under the able superintendence of Mr. Rowe.

APPOINTMENT OF PRESIDENT JUDGE.—Hon. Alexander King, of this place, has been appointed, President Judge of this district, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Nill.

NEW GOODS.—J. M. Shoemaker has just received a large lot of new goods. Job is very patient and will wait on customers without the least complaint, especially when their purchases are made for cash.

FRESH ARRIVAL.—J. B. Farquhar has lately received, from the eastern cities, an extensive assortment of new goods. Give him a call.

☞The war news is unimportant, though several severe battles have been fought, in which Stanton says the Federal loss was 7,500. These battles were indecisive. Grant has been forced to take McClellan's plan of approaching Richmond by way of the Chickahominy, and is not yet, by several miles, as near the city as McClellan was two years ago.

LINCOLN RENOMINATED.—The telegraph announces the re-nomination of Lincoln for the Presidency, by the Shoddy Convention at Baltimore. Andrew Johnson, a supporter of Breckinridge in 1860, and formerly a ferocious pro-slavery man, was nominated for Vice President. This makes the "split" in the Abolition party complete.

☞A vigorous effort is now being made by the aboltionists to circulate their papers in this county. Now is the time for our Democratic friends to run up the circulation of the Gazette. Will not the active men of the party see that this is done?

KILLED AND WOUNDED IN CO. D, 55th P. V.—The following letter from Capt. S. S. Metzger, gives a detailed statement of the losses in Co. D, 55th P. V. Among them we are sorry to notice the names of a number of our old friends and acquaintance:

PARDONED.—The President has recently pardoned twenty-seven of the Minnesota Indians who were concerned in the great massacre in that State. It is well for them that they did not live South of "Mason and Dixon's Line."

The 'Franklin Repository' and Hypocrisy.

BUSH'S HOTEL, Bedford Co., Pa.,
June 6, 1864.

MR. EDITOR:

In looking over the last issue of the "Franklin Repository," I find you have been called to account for coming as near the truth as possible, in regard to our losses in Grant's first advance on Richmond. They (I mean the abolition press and correspondents) are so used to lying, that when they get a glimpse of something like facts, they stand aghast, and cannot find epithets harsh enough to meet the emergency. "Traitor," to them, is too insignificant; but they must, as they suppose, make it stronger by using "hypocrisy, ill-conceived perfidy, &c."—Now, this comes with bad grace from the sheet above named; and as you, living in the benighted village of Bedford, may not have cognizance of the far-famed "Alexander the Great," of modern times, I will, if permitted the use of your columns make a slight expose of some of the freaks of this would-be prodigy of perfection. Having frequently, since the commencement of this bloody war, been thrown into the society of this individual, I will, in my first letter, commence with one scene which I witnessed in Washington City. It was probably a year and a half after the breaking out of the war, that this man, with his coffers filled to overflowing with greenbacks, filched from the decaying treasury of our poor, stricken country, by bogus contracts, had occasion to visit the great emporium of iniquity—the Federal capitel—and not knowing how to make use of his money, he thought he would invest it in Bank, and finding "Willard's" too small a "house" to make a splurge, commensurate with his pile, he concluded to search for some higher priced cafe. In passing down Pennsylvania Avenue, he was struck with the brilliancy of some elegant lamps; he stopped, thinking he had found the place of the City, and inquired what hotel it was; he was informed it was the Hotel de Joe Hall. He entered, remarking that the fare was so poor at Willard's that he was always hungry—he would go in and partake. He was admitted by a friend of his—an "American citizen of African descent"—who very politely ushered him up to the supper room; but, as fate would have it, the table had been cleared, and the guests had retired to an adjoining room, and were there picking bones. He looked at the operation for some time (being very hungry) and anxious to expend some of his ill-gotten gains. Finally, he concluded to buy some bones; he looked at the piles of ivory for some time, and finding the red to be the higher priced—the white being very cheap—he chose the former. He bought a pile, amounting to $250.00; he commenced fingering them, then tried to bite them, but his teeth not being very good, he concluded he would not risk swallowing them, but would feed them to a pet tiger Mr. Hall kept for the amusement of his guests. The tiger gulped them in without any fears of his digestive apparatus. He picked out another stack of bones, which he supposed to be more tender, but after trying them, he found them still too hard, and again fed them to the same animal. The Bengal stuck very close to him, as he was the best visitor that had been there for some time, and Aleck took quite an interest in him. He still continued to bring bones and to feed them to the tiger; but it becoming late, and he the only one left to the tender mercies of the brute, he thought he would square accounts for the evening's entertainment, which amounted to the nice little sum of $3,500. Pretty good price for one little repast, but what did he care? for, "come easy, go easy." He had found a high-priced hotel and was satisfied.

Now, this is the man who talks about "hypocrisy and perfidy;" a person, who, when in the quiet and christian village of Chambersburg, is as meek and lowly as any professor of religion, but who, when from home, and when he thinks the eyes of his minions cannot see him, lets loose all his perfidy and hypocrisy, thinking it "all right and nobody hurt."

P. S. I may enlarge in my next.

Yours truly, K. T. BURKET,

For the Gazette.

An Ugly Customer.

"It is customary, in China, that when the emperor has occupied any seat or chair in the house of any of his subjects, it is immediately covered with yellow stuff, the imperial color; and none may henceforth sit upon it. One day when the emperor Chantche, the second of the Mantcheou dynasty, paid a visit to the missionary, Father Schaal, he sat down, sometimes on the bed—sometimes elsewhere—wherever he found a seat. The Father said to him, laughing, but where does your majesty intend me to sit hereafter; 'Wherever you like,' replied the monarch, 'you and I are on terms of equality.'" —Missions in China.

Our emperor, like Chantche, relishes a "joke." We would, then, like to know, where we, the poor people, are going to sit, when he enters our houses, by his taxes, by his proclamations, and by his DRAFTS. Are we, like the Chinese, to cover his foot-prints with the yellow stuff—the imperial color of profound silence—or, in other words, "say and write nothing at all about it?" According to our Anglo-Saxon fathers, "the King can do no wrong." O, for a Chinese Emperor who could say to one of his subjects: "Seat yourself wherever you please; you and I are on terms of equality." CHANGHI.

☞Collodion has, by a new process of treatment, found out by a photographer, been made into first-rate leather, by certain chemical treatment. It becomes as strong and durable as ordinary leather, only impervious to air and water.

The Christian Association of Bedford.

ITS SYSTEM OF FAITH, DISCIPLINE AND GOVERNMENT.

Recognizing the Lord Jesus Christ as the Supreme Head of the Christian Church, who employs the agencies both of Angels and Men for the ultimate triumphs of his kingdom in the earth, therefore, for the purpose of advancing his glory by the spread of his religion, both among ourselves and our brethren of Mankind, we do hereby unite ourselves together in the fellowship of the gospel, and agree to submit ourselves to the following system of rules and regulations, as comprising only a form of temporary spiritual organization.

1 "The Church of our Providence," as it has been significantly termed, shall be known for the present, by the name and style of the Christian Association of Bedford.

2 As the basis of our faith, we agree to adopt what is recognized by Universal Christendom as fundamental to the Christian Church, "The Apostle's Creed."

3 The particular form of Worship we commit, for the present, to the judgment of our Pastor, until the views of the Association upon this subject can be more definitely understood; the only requisition at this time being that the Pastor will confine himself exclusively to a faithful expounding of the pure word of God and nothing else; that he will duly administer the christian sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, according to the ordinance of Christ, and in all suitable ways, seek to edify the Body of Christ.

4 As a system of Moral rule and government, we adopt the Ten Commandments and the inspired precepts of the New Testament Scriptures, relying exclusively upon the grace of the New Covenant for all requisite ability to render acceptable obedience thereto.

5 The conditions of membership in this Association, are first, a firm belief in the truth of the Christian System, and secondly, a scriptural experience of true religion, or an earnest desire to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. All persons of this description of character, provided further, they shall have been baptized, may be admitted by the Pastor, with the consent and advice of the Members of the Association; the Pastor having the right of decision in all doubtful cases.

6 For the trial of all delinquent or disorderly persons, the Pastor, upon the presentation of complaint by one or more members, shall bring the case either before the entire Association, or a smaller number to be appointed by him as he may deem best, before whom the accused shall be required to appear, and who shall dispose of the case, either by admonition or reproof, or censure or expulsion, as the circumstances may demand: the Pastor in either case, to pronounce the decision of the Committee.

7 The spiritual interests of the Association shall be mainly under the supervision of the Pastor, who shall however be advised on all matters connected with his work and ministry by the Officers of the Association, having charge of its temporal interests, whenever either of these parties shall deem counsel to be appropriate or necessary.

8 The whole temporal economy of the Association shall be under the direction and control of a Board of Management to consist always of the Pastor and five or seven members, to be annually elected by the Association. This Board shall fix the Pastor's Salary, have control over all expenditures for public worship, and perform all other duties respecting the temporal interests of the Association. In all meetings of the Board the Pastor shall be ex-officio Chairman.

9 Looking upon the jurisdiction of the Church as do other christians, as being purely spiritual, we therefore believe it should have no connection with secular or civil institutions, nor should its deliberations and acts at any time require the sword of the civil magistrate to be unsheathed for the purpose of enforcing them: We also equally believe with other christian churches, "that liberty of conscience and the free exercise of private judgment in matters of religion, are natural and inalienable rights of men, of which no government, civil or ecclesiastical can deprive us." At the same time, we further hold, that it is the plain scriptural duty of all christian people, in all their relations to civil government, to render obedience "to the supreme authority of the country" where they may reside and to use all laudable means to promote such obedience on the part of others. And so we teach and exhort.

10 The present writing respecting the subjects it embraces, refers not, as we have already said, to any permanent, but only to a temporary organization, which shall be subject to the further developments of that gracious Providence which has thus far marked our progress with tokens of Divine favor, and upon which we may safely rely for our future guidance. Signed on behalf of the members of the Christian Association of Bedford.

SAMUEL KEPLER, Pastor and Chairman;

DR. RADWAY'S PILLS.

CURE SCARLET FEVER.
CURE SCARLET FEVER.
CURE SCARLET FEVER.

Dr. Radway's Pills are the only purgative medicines safe to administer in Scarlet Fever, Erysipelas, Small Pox and other eruptive and reducing fevers. These pills cure the patient and are a safeguard against the subsequent appearance of Dropsical effusions, Opthalmia, Strumous discharges from the ears, sores, ulcers, and swollen joints, fits, convulsions and a train of other maladies that scarlet fever patients suffer after treatment of this disease.

A LAMENTABLE FACT.

Not one physician in one hundred ever cures the patient under treatment of Scarlet Fever, Small Pox, Erysipelas. Granted that the patient recovers from the peculiar symptoms of the original disease—but the disease is only smothered, and subsequently breaks out in other forms. If Radway's Pills are used in this or any other disease where a cure depends upon purgation, and purity of the blood, a perfect cure will be secured. Radway's Pills purge thoroughly, cleanse and purify the blood, regulate the liver, Kidneys, Spleen and other glands to a healthy and harmonious action; occasion no straining, piles or tenesmus, they make a perfect cure, no more physic is necessary, man is restored to health, and Nature, until her laws are violated, keeps him healthy. Price 25 cents per box.—Sold by Druggists.

IMPORTANT TO DRUGGISTS—LUDLUM'S SPECIFIC.—We learn that in case No. 23, 782, Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, a final decree has been entered, confirming WM. F. DAVIDSON, Druggist, N. E. Corner Fifth and Main Streets, in the exclusive right and title to make and vend this popular medicine, and to use the trade-mark connected therewith, as the lawful successor of DR. JAS. M. LUDLUM, the original inventor, and of ORLANDO BYRON LUDLUM, his son.

The exclusive right being thus confirmed in a single person for this valuable compound, will enable the public to secure, by application to him, in all cases genuine articles, manufactured according to the original formula, put up and sold with the original trade-marks, which no other person has a right to use.

It is doubtful whether Mr. Davidson or the public is most to be congratulated on this brilliant result.

D. W. AMOS' PATENT
HORSE RAKE.

This rake combines greater improvements, and more effective capabilities, than any ever before offered to the agriculturist.
As the teeth are elevated and depressed by the foot of the driver, his hands are left free to guide his team with precision, and keep it under perfect control. As each rake-tooth is capable of an independent vertical movement, the rake will operate perfectly over the most uneven surface with a uniform pressure, and will, consequently,
RAKE MOWN GRASS PERFECTLY CLEAN.
As the teeth of the rake have two movements, stony ground will not obstruct its movement, nor injure the several teeth, and it will rake without injury in the heaviest grass.
As the teeth form their own springs, the cumbersome, costly, and complex springs, heretofore used, are entirely dispensed with, and in case of breakage any Farmer can at ease replace the broken tooth.
As the rake-teeth are lifted automatically by mechanism, controlled by the foot of the driver, he is enabled to operate the machine with very little fatigue and without using his hands at all. As the driver has both hands with which to manage his team, he can START, TURN, or go FORWARD with precision and at the proper moment; and, as the movement of the teeth are controlled by his foot, he can, at the proper moment, elevate them to discharge their load, and instantly drop them at the exact moment and place to commence raking without loss of time.
This rake is solidly constructed of durable materials, and is so simple and direct in its operation that any boy who can manage a horse in harness, can, with this RAKE, do perfect work.
☞All persons wanting a good Rake will please give me a call in due time, as I will have a great many to make this season.

IMPORTANT
TO ALL
INVALIDS.
IRON IN THE BLOOD.

It is well known to the medical profession that IRON is the Vital Principle or Life Element of the blood. This is derived chiefly from the food we eat; but if the food is not properly digested, or if, from any cause whatever, the necessary quantity of iron is not taken into the circulation, or becomes reduced, the whole system suffers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will clog up the lungs, will stupefy the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will send its disease-producing elements to all parts of the system, and every one will suffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease.
The great value of Iron as a Medicine
is well known and acknowledged by all medical men. The difficulty has been to obtain such a preparation of it as will enter the circulation and assimilate at once with the blood. This point, says Dr. Hayes, Massachusetts State Chemist, has been attained in the Peruvian Syrup, by combination in a way before unknown.
THE PERUVIAN SYRUP
is a PROTECTED solution of the PROTOXIDE OF IRON. A NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE, that strikes at the root of disease by supplying the blood with its Vital Principle or Life Element—Iron.
THE PERUVIAN SYRUP
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Fever and Ague, Loss of Energy, Low Spirits.
THE PERUVIAN SYRUP
Infuses strength, vigor, and new life into the system, and builds up an "Iron Constitution."
THE PERUVIAN SYRUP
Cures Chronic Diarrhœa, Scrofula, Boils, Scurvy, Loss of Constitutional Vigor.
THE PERUVIAN SYRUP
Cures Nervous Affections, Female Complaints, and all diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder.
THE PERUVIAN SYRUP
Is a SPECIFIC for all diseases originating in a BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD, or accompanied by Debility or a Low State of the System.

☞READ WHO SAYS SO.☜

From the Rev. Levi G. Beck. Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly,
LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, and Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.
I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN, Philad'a.

From the Rev. Jos. H. Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Baptist Church.
Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.
Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD.
Eighth below Coates st., Phil'a.

From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of the Baptis Church, Germantown, Penn.
Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of severe cold and general debility I have been greatly benefited by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects on others. Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH,
Germantown, Pa.

From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hedding M. E. Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service.
Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER,
No. 726 N. Nineteenth Street

From the Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Pa.) Baptist Churches.
New Rochelle, N. Y.
Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. J. M. LYONS.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks co., Pa.
Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Respected Sir:—I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. Yours, with respect,
J. S. HERMAN.

SHRINER'S
BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.

For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

THIS is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon it doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs, purifying, strengthening and invigorating the whole system, calming and soothing the nerves; aiding and facilitating expectoration, and healing the DISEASED LUNGS,

Thus striking at the root of disease, and driving it from the system.

CROUP.

This disease is announced by difficulty of breathing, shrill whistling or wheezing, hacking cough and threatened suffocation, &c. It mostly occurs in young children. No child need die of croup if this Syrup is properly used and used in time. Mothers having croupy children should watch the first show of the disease, and always keep this remedy at hand.

For coughs after measles this Syrup is most excellent. Experience has proven that it is equalled by no other preparation.

The price of the remedy is such as to place it within the reach of all, the poor as well as the rich, and every person should have it.

Every person should have it in the house. It is a true and faithful friend to all who value health and wish to secure themselves against that most terrible disease, consumption. It will be found the most useful as well as the cheapest family medicine in the world. It has been used for the last four years with a success without a parallel.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these Powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal.

These powders are not intended, as most powders are, to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but, to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure prevention of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases incident to the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slavering, Coughs, Fevers, Loss of Appetite and Vital Energy, &c.—These Powders, if used two or three times a week, through the winter and spring, your horse will never get the Lung Fever, Colic or Botts. A few doses of these powders will remove the worst cough, on any horse. Were owners of horses to feed a few of these powders every year, they might save the lives of many valuable horses.

HORSES. CATTLE. HOGS.

MILCH COWS.

The properties this powder possesses in increasing the quantity of milk in cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

HOGS.

In all diseases of swine, as coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these powders in a barrel of swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these powders the hog cholera can be prevented.

RADWAY'S PILLS

DR. RADWAY'S PILLS,

ARE THE BEST PURGATIVE PILLS.
ARE THE BEST PURGATIVE PILLS.
ARE THE BEST PURGATIVE PILLS.

NO STRAINING.
NO GRIPING.
NO TENESMUS.
NO PILES.

NO FALSE CALLS TO THE WATER CLOSET.

BUT A BRISK AND THOROUGH EVACUATION FROM THE BOWELS IS ALWAYS SECURED.

Newly Discovered Principles in Purgatives.

Dr. Radway's Pills are the best Purgative Pills in the world, and the only Vegetable Substitute for Calomel or Mercury ever discovered. They are composed of VEGETABLE EXTRACTS FROM ROOTS, HERBS, PLANTS, GUMS, SEEDS, FLOWERS, BARKS, FRUITS AND WEEDS, PREPARED IN VACUO.

One grain of the extract of the medicinal properties of Radway's Pills, possesses a greater curative power over disease than a thousand of the crude and inert materials that enter into all other pills in use. These Pills are compounded of the active medicinal properties of the Roots, Herbs, Plants, Flowers, Gums, &c. of which they are composed. One dose will prove their superiority to all other pills. They

PURGE, CLEANSE, PURIFY, HEAL, SOOTHE, CALM, STRENGTHEN, INVIGORATE, AND REGULATE THE SYSTEM.

Their Great Combinations.

They are Aperient, Tonic, Laxative, Alterative, Stimulant, Counter Irritant, Sedoritic.

AS EVACUANTS,

They are more certain and thorough than the Drastic Pills of Aloes, or Croton or Harlem Oil, or Elaterium; and more soothing and healing than Senna, or Rhubarb, or Tamarinds, or Castor Oil.

IN SUDDEN ATTACKS OF

Inflammation of the Bowels or Stomach, Liver, Spleen, Pancreas or Kidneys, Bilious Cholic or Bilious Fever, Erysipelas or Congestive Fever, Small Pox, Measles, or Scarlet Fever,

SIX TO EIGHT OF DR. RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS WILL PURGE THE PRIMARY CAUSE OF THESE FROM THE SYSTEM IN SIX HOURS.

One dose of Dr. Radway's Pills will cleanse the intestinal canal, and purge from the bowels all offending and retained humors, as thoroughly as lobelia or the best approved emetic will cleanse the stomach, without producing inflammation, irritation, weakness, or other unpleasant symptoms. There are no other purgative pills in the world that will secure this desideratum.

STRAINING,

BETTER THAN CALOMEL OR BLUE PILL.
BETTER THAN CALOMEL OR BLUE PILL.
BETTER THAN CALOMEL OR BLUE PILL

AS ALTERATIVES,

They exercise a more powerful influence over the liver and its secretions than calomel, mercury, blue pill, hence their importance in cases of Liver Complaints and Spleen Difficulties, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bilious attacks, Headache, &c. In the treatment of Fevers, either Bilious, Yellow, Typhoid, and other reducing Fevers, they are superior to quinine. Their influence extends over the entire system, controlling, strengthening, and bracing up the relaxed and wasting energies, and regulating all the secretions to the natural performance of their duties, cleansing and purifying the blood, and purging from the system all diseased deposits and impure humors.

Six doses of Radway's Pills cured me.

STEPHEN BENNETT, U. S. C. S."

"I have suffered with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for seven years—have used all sorts of pills—they would give me temporary comfort, but was compelled to take them all the time. I have used one box of Dr. Radway's Pills; I am cured. I have not taken a particle of medicine in six months.

C. M. CHILDS, Roxbury, Mass.

PILES, STRAINING AND TENESMUS, PILES, STRAINING AND TENESMUS,

Are the results of inflammation or irritation of the mucous membrane of the bowels, induced by drastic pill—these imperfect pills, instead of being dissolved by the chyle carried to the lower bowels, and inject a peristaltic movement or evacuation by their irritant—hence the straining, cramps, wrenching pains, piles and tenesmus, and the frequent false calls to the water closet, that patients undergo who take these imperfect pills.

If you would avoid these many ills, whenever a purgative medicine is required, take a dose of RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

THEY WILL PURGE THOROUGHLY AND LEAVE THE BOWELS REGULAR.

Persons afflicted with PILES, may rely on a positive cure by their use.

COATED WITH GUM. COATED WITH GUM. COATED WITH GUM.
